Dear Chaoying,

Thank you for presenting your work at the Journal of International Financial Markets, Institutions and Money (JIFMIM) - CCPF conference that taken place in Jinan, China on June 25-27, 2019. As an organizer of the conference, I am pleased to inform you that I would like to invite you to present a revised version of your manuscript entitled "Targeted Easing Monetary Policy and Financing Constraints of Small Business in China" at the JIFMIM - CCPF Symposium which will be held in Mauritius from November 30 to December 4, 2019.

If you are willing to accept this invitation, please confirm by replying to this email by Thursday August 8, 2019. We also request you to (a) email us a revised version of your manuscript by September 15, 2019, based on the feedback and comments from the JIFMIM - CCPF Conference in June 2019, and (b) register the conference using the link we will send to you upon your confirmation. We will then send out papers for blind review, and hope to provide you with the reviewers' reports before the symposium so that you may have a chance to incorporate the comments in the version you present.

A registration fee of USD600 (Plus USD28.11 administration fee charged from third party website, Non-refundable) will be charged to cover expense related to the conference including conference materials, coffee breaks, lunches and gala dinner. A link to facilitate payment will be forwarded to delegates once attendance is confirmed. Inquiries about the conference should be direct to ccpf@umanitoba.ca.

Please note that each participant may only present one paper at the conference. In other words, if more than one paper you co-authored have been accepted to be presented at the conference, other co-author(s) will have to register as well. We look forward to welcoming you in Mauritius this coming December.

Best regards,
Truly yours,

Zhenyu Wu
