Dear Prof. Yan,

I would like to invite you to Columbia University in New York City on discussing joint research project on MicroLED display and its application. We would like to schedule a meeting of discussing research collaboration on display technologies with you from January 14 to January 15.

Starting January 16, we would like to have you participating our daily research work in our research lab at Columbia campus for two days, ending on Friday, January 17, as part of our joint research project on MicroLED application.

Please note that all the expense during this period will not be covered by Columbia University.

I look forward to your visit and having fruitful discussion on our joint project.

Yours truly,

Ioannis Kymissis
