Dear Professor Xiaowei Chen,

On behalf of the Program Committee I am very pleased to inform you that your proposed paper, Translating as Rhetorical Reconstruction: An Analysis of Chinese Renditions of the Term Populism, has been accepted for the program of the ISHR Twenty-Second Biennial Conference, to be held at the Hotel Monteleone in New Orleans, Louisiana, USA, 24-27 July 2019.

Please register for the conference no later than 03 May 2019 to have your paper included on the conference program. If we do not receive your registration by that date, we will assume that you have declined our invitation and we will remove your name from the conference program.

You will be notified as soon as online registration for the conference is open. Further details about registration, fees, travel, accommodation, and other general information will be made available on our conference website at <http://www.ishr-conference.org/> under the tab 'General Information'. There will be a link to the conference website also on our main website <http://www.ishr-web.org/>. You are expected to cover all expenses.

I join with the Program Committee in welcoming you to the Twenty-Second Biennial Conference of ISHR. More than 300 scholars from 40 nations will present papers, and we look forward to your participation in this rich program.

ISHR members from under-represented countries are eligible to apply for a supplementary travel grant to help offset expenses for attending the Twenty-Second Biennial Conference, New Orleans, Louisiana, in 2019. Under-represented countries are countries other than Australia, Austria, Bahamas, Bahrain, Belgium, Canada, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Iceland, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Korea Rep., Kuwait, Luxembourg, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Singapore, Sweden, Switzerland, United Arab Emirates, United Kingdom, and the United States. If you would like to apply for one of these small travel grants, please go to THIS link to complete your application.

Best wishes,
