Prof. Xing Chen (DOB: 02-11-1985)
College of Mathematics and Computer Science
Fuzhou University, China

Dear Prof. Xing Chen,

I am pleased to invite you to spend 1month and 10 days at the University of Exeter, United Kingdom as an Academic Visitor, during the time period from 15-01-2019 to 25-02-2019.

I understand you will be supported by the Funds of First-class Subject Construction (College of mathematics, Fuzhou University). The funding covers your costs and living expenses in United Kingdom. I have communicated with you for several times and can attest that your English level satisfies our requirements for an Academic Visitor.

You will conduct research in the area of software systems and engineering approaches for cloud and mobility, in which you have had significant experience already. Your academic visit to the University of Exeter, United Kingdom is intended to facilitate independent research as set out in your application and take part in formal exchange arrangements with me, post-doc research fellows and PhD students.

You will visit the college of Engineering, Mathematics and Physical Sciences, University of Exeter, which conducts basic research in the field of high-performance computing, resource management and big data. You shall be provided the necessary support for carrying out the research including providing office space, materials supplies and access to our library and other research facilities. Moreover, there are no bench fees for the moment here at the University of Exeter.

Please note that academic visitors are not permitted to engage in work in the UK other than the academic activity for which they are admitted under the Immigration Rules.

I look forward to your visit.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Jia Hu

Lecturer in Computer Science
